CHARACTER APPEARANCE

ALLIES & ORGANIZATIONS

Born into a struggling barbarian tribe in the Dragon Tooth Mountains, Korga Stonefist's life was defined by survival and a natural cunning that saw her constantly devising plans for any hardship. Her giant heritage granted her exceptional size and strength, allowing her to wield a greatsword even as a child, an intimidation factor she would later use to her advantage. Seeing a way out of her tribe's limited existence, Korga struck a deal with a band of smugglers, learning their trade in exchange for her knowledge of the treacherous mountain terrain. She quickly rose through the ranks, her strategic mind, creative solutions, and imposing presence earning her the name "Stonefist." Her legend was cemented with the infamous "double-crossbow" deal, where she simultaneously supplied two warring factions with mismatched weaponry, a feat whispered in awe among smugglers. Though her ill-gotten gains brought prosperity to her beloved family, funding new homes and resources, Korga harbors a fatal flaw: an irresistible urge to swindle those more powerful than herself, driven by a thrill for outsmarting the untouchable and the constant need to be creative. This, she knows, could easily be her downfall, but she continues on, armed with her greatsword, javelins, and an endless supply of contingency plans, forever walking the line between success and ruin.

CHARACTER BACKSTORY

Claim to fame: You once smuggled crates of crossbow bolts and bundles of arrows, each destined for an opposing side in a regional war, at the same time. The buyers arrived within moments of each other but did not discover your trickery.
